

|                                         |                                  |                               |                                                                     |                                               |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| B                                | I                         | N                      | G                                                            | O                                      |
| Went to Bellflower Christian Elementary | Born 08/03/45 in Sudbury         | Has traveled to India         | She has 10 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild                     | Loves eating gourmet food                     |
| Enjoys travelling to Mexico             | She stays in touch with Facebook | Married to Bob                | Enjoys going to the dome                                            | She marched in the Tournament of Roses Parade |
| Went to U of T                          | Enjoys playing golf              | Happy 70th!                   | Her middle name is Beatrice                                         | Lived in 7 homes                              |
| She has sailed on 9 cruises             | Lives in Fairfield Iowa          | Recently has taken up Pilates | Her favorite shoe designer is Stuart Weitzman                       | Married Bill Haringa on 8/26/60               |
| Enjoys playing hockey                   | She has 3 namesakes              | Has 1 brother                 | Worked at Household Finance Corporation and North American Aviation | Has 2 sisters                                 |

|                                                          |                                                                                   |                                                           |                                                           |                                           |
|----------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| B                                                 | I                                                                          | N                                                  | G                                                  | O                                  |
| Went toU of T                                        | Worked atHouseholdFinanceCorporation andNorth AmericanAviatio | Enjoysgoing tothe dome                            | Lives inFairfieldIowa                             | Enjoystravellingto Mexico         |
| She has 10grandchildrenand 1 greatgrandchild | Lived in7 homes                                                               | Hastraveledto India                               | MarriedBillHaringaon 8/26/60                  | Enjoysplayinggolf                 |
| Hermiddlename isBeatrice                     | Born08/03/45inSudbury                                                 | Happy70th!                                            | Her favoriteshoedesigner isStuartWeitzman | Recentlyhas takenup Pilates       |
| Has 2sisters                                         | Went toBellflowerChristianElementary                                  | Has 1brother                                          | She hassailed on9 cruises                         | Enjoysplayinghockey               |
| Loveseatinggourmetfood                       | Her firsthorse'sname wasJackie                                        | She marchedin theTournamentof RosesParade | Marriedto Bob                                         | She staysin touchwithFacebook |

|                                   |                                               |                                                                     |                                 |                                                 |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| B                          | I                                      | N                                                            | G                        | O                                        |
| She has sailed on 9 cruises       | Her favorite shoe designer is Stuart Weitzman | Went to U of T                                                      | Has 2 sisters                   | She has 10 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild |
| She has 3 namesakes               | She marched in the Tournament of Roses Parade | Worked at Household Finance Corporation and North American Aviation | Lives in Fairfield Iowa         | Enjoys playing golf                             |
| Recently has taken up Pilates     | Enjoys going to the dome                      | Happy 70th!                                                         | Her middle name is Beatrice     | Has traveled to India                           |
| Her first horse's name was Jackie | Loves eating gourmet food                     | Enjoys playing hockey                                               | Born 08/03/45 in Sudbury        | Went to Bellflower Christian Elementary         |
| She stays in touch with Facebook  | Married to Bob                                | Lived in 7 homes                                                    | Married Bill Haringa on 8/26/60 | Has 1 brother                                   |