

I want to be included in everything my friends do	Fasting is too hard for me	I do not know a lot about saints	I love to read	I have to wear appropriate clothes when I go to church
I am too young to fast	I talk to God in my times of need	I love getting invited to parties	God knows me best	I sang in my church choir
It is ok to be around people who curse as long as I don't	I always start my day by talking to God	I have God on my mind at all times	I have a favorite saint	I reach for my phone as soon as I wake up
I have a prayer corner in my room	I love spending time with my friends	I do not remember the last time I confessed	I like blending in rather than standing out	I am more of a follower than a leader
I play sports	I attended Vespers twice in the last month	Liturgy is too long for me	I can listen to music for hours	I fast on Wednesdays and Fridays
