Someone says "I'll have to get back to you on that."	A pet or child makes an appearance on camera.	I experience technical difficulties with my audio or video.	I overhear someone mention the need for more coffee.	I join the meeting late.
I bring up a previous agenda item.	I witness an action item being assigned without clarity.	I notice someone agreeing without fully understanding.	Background noise interrupts the meeting.	I witness a "Can you see my screen?" moment.
Someone uses an emoji in their response.	Feel free to use this list for your staff meeting bingo card!	FREE	I hear someone ask "Can everyone hear me okay?" or "Camera is on right?"	I hear someone say "Let's circle back to that later."
I sit through an unnecessary PowerPoint or presentation.	I hear someone using corporate jargon.	I observe a side conversation in the chat.	I forget to mute my mic.	I notice an off-topic conversation.
I accidentally leave the meeting.	I see someone nodding off or looking visibly tired.	I catch someone multitasking during the meeting.	The meeting runs over the scheduled time.	I encounter an awkward silence.
