

B	I	N	G	O
Sends tennis balls	A battle site	Is French and does not respect the Dauphin	Marries Pistol	Is frank and outspoken
Gives the go ahead for using the Salic Law	Says a soliloquy	Is patriotic	A female character	Is spoken of but never seen on stage
Represents Henry at the French court	Speaks at the start and end of the play	FREE	Conveys the demand that Henry should offer himself for ransom	Is a traitor
Is closely connected to a prop	Often uses hyperbole and allusion	Is compared to Mars	Is a thief	Is hanged
Is Welsh	Dies	Is related to the King of France	War is waged there	Is French

B	I	N	G	O
Speaks at the start and end of the play	A female character	Marries Pistol	Gives the go ahead for using the Salic Law	Is patriotic
Is French and does not respect the Dauphin	War is waged there	Is frank and outspoken	Dies	Is spoken of but never seen on stage
Is closely connected to a prop	Conveys the demand that Henry should offer himself for ransom	FREE	Is a traitor	A battle site
Is a thief	Is related to the King of France	Sends tennis balls	Is French	Often uses hyperbole and allusion
Is compared to Mars	Is hanged	Represents Henry at the French court	Says a soliloquy	Is Welsh

B	I	N	G	O
Dies	Is related to the King of France	A female character	Is hanged	Conveys the demand that Henry should offer himself for ransom
Sends tennis balls	Is closely connected to a prop	Is compared to Mars	Says a soliloquy	Is frank and outspoken
Represents Henry at the French court	Is French	FREE	Often uses hyperbole and allusion	Is a thief
Speaks at the start and end of the play	Is spoken of but never seen on stage	Marries Pistol	War is waged there	Is French and does not respect the Dauphin
Is a traitor	A battle site	Is patriotic	Gives the go ahead for using the Salic Law	Is Welsh