Went through a pop-punk phase	Became a fan of a sibling's music taste	Got into a genre you thought youâEURTMd hate (e.g. country K-pop) ðŸ™	Made a music video with friends	Had a sibling or parent judge your music taste
Felt judged for liking a certain genre	Used a song lyric as your status or bio	Learned a dance routine from a music video	Became obsessed with a retro band (like Duran Duran!)	Tried (and failed) to learn an instrument
Went through an emo music phase	Bought band merch at a concert	FREE	Had a massive crush on a musician	Had a phase loving only sad breakup songs
Played the same album over and over	Had a pop diva phase	Loved a one-hit wonder	Had a debate over which band was the best	Knew all the words to a rap song
Changed your style because of an artist	Named a playlist something embarrassing	Found your "angsty teen anthem"	Went to a music festival	Got into 80s hits because of a movie
