Went through an emo music phase	Became a fan of a sibling's music taste	Got into 80s hits because of a movie	Named a playlist something embarrassing	Had a sibling or parent judge
Felt judged for liking a certain genre	Went through a pop-punk phase	Loved a one-hit wonder	Became obsessed with a retro band (like Duran Duran!)	Used a song lyric as your status or bio
Went to a music festival	Bought band merch at a concert	FREE	Learned a dance routine from a music video	Had a massive crush on a musician
Defended a band with your life	Had a phase loving only sad breakup songs	Played the same album over and over	Had a pop diva phase	Made a music video with friends
Tried (and failed) to learn an instrument	Had a favorite boy band	Got into a genre you thought you'd hate (e.g. country K-pop)	Knew all the words to a rap song	Changed your style because of an artist
