

| B                                        | I                           | N                                       | G                                    | O                              |
|-------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| Visited 5 countries outside the US              | Broke a bone                       | Has never been on a plane                      | Loves anchovies or pineapple on their pizza | Is a twin                             |
| Has a red car                                   | Speaks 3 different languages       | Is left-handed                                 | Currently has a basset hound                | Served in the military                |
| Worked in the I/DD field for more than 10 years | Has 3 pets as part of their family | Has worked an overnight shift                  | Has worked for 2 or more agencies           | Plays an instrument                   |
| Hates Country music                             | Lived in Tucson all their lives    | Has never got a speeding ticket                | Is from New York                            | Has a family member with a disability |
| Never worked weekends                           | Has been in a play                 | Worked in the I/DD field for more than 5 years | Has more than four siblings                 | Has never played Monopoly or Twister  |

|                                                 |                                                |                                      |                                 |                                             |
|-------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| B                                        | I                                       | N                             | G                        | O                                    |
| Worked in the I/DD field for more than 10 years | Has 3 pets as part of their family             | Served in the military               | Currently has a basset hound    | Has a family member with a disability       |
| Has more than four siblings                     | Plays an instrument                            | Has worked an overnight shift        | Is a twin                       | Lived in Tucson all their lives             |
| Has a red car                                   | Has never been on a plane                      | Is left-handed                       | Is from New York                | Visited 5 countries outside the US          |
| Hates Country music                             | Has been in a play                             | Speaks 3 different languages         | Has never got a speeding ticket | Loves anchovies or pineapple on their pizza |
| Never worked weekends                           | Worked in the I/DD field for more than 5 years | Has never played Monopoly or Twister | Broke a bone                    | Has worked for 2 or more agencies           |

|                                                 |                                      |                                                |                                    |                                    |
|-------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| B                                        | I                             | N                                       | G                           | O                           |
| Plays an instrument                             | Is from New York                     | Has been in a play                             | Has more than four siblings        | Has never got a speeding ticket    |
| Has a family member with a disability           | Has never played Monopoly or Twister | Has a red car                                  | Has worked an overnight shift      | Visited 5 countries outside the US |
| Hates Country music                             | Never worked weekends                | Is left-handed                                 | Has 3 pets as part of their family | Speaks 3 different languages       |
| Worked in the I/DD field for more than 10 years | Lived in Tucson all their lives      | Worked in the I/DD field for more than 5 years | Currently has a basset hound       | Broke a bone                       |
| Has worked for 2 or more agencies               | Served in the military               | Loves anchovies or pineapple on their pizza    | Has never been on a plane          | Is a twin                          |