

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                            |                                     |                                                                              |                                                   |                                                |
|--------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| Worked a Suicide Prevention Hotline        | Became 1st time grandmother in 2024 | Appeared on billboards for milk advertisement                                | Learned to drive manual transmission on a Combine | The youngest of 7 siblings                     |
| Ran a Marathon                             | Initial college degree in Nursing   | Waylan Jennings (Dukes of Hazard) was her music teacher in elementary school | Snorkeled abover a dozen sharks                   | Former educator at a Science & Industry museum |
| Survived the blizzard of '77               | Was in Marching Band in High School | Worked at a Landfill in College                                              | Hairdresser as her first job                      | Semi-professional Climber                      |
| On the cover of book calles Saronna's Gift | Has cycled over 500 miles in Europe | Operated equipment on the International Space Station                        | Tried out for X-Factor                            | Played in a Baseball Tournament                |
| Summer intern at the Pentagon when 17 y/o  | Was a PE teacher for several years  | Lived in Turkey for a year                                                   | Lived in Puerto Rico                              | Read 106 books in 2024                         |

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                                       |                                           |                                                |                                     |                                                                              |
|-------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Operated equipment on the International Space Station | Lived in California                       | Has Dual Citizenship in another country        | Has a dog named Mocha               | Read over 81 books (29 500 pages) in 2024                                    |
| Ran a Marathon                                        | Played in a Baseball Tournament           | Former educator at a Science & Industry museum | Was in Marching Band in High School | Traveled through 43 counties in FL over 3 days                               |
| On the cover of book calles Saronna's Gift            | Hairdresser as her first job              | Wildlife Photographer                          | Worked at a Landfill in College     | Waylan Jennings (Dukes of Hazard) was her music teacher in elementary school |
| Became 1st time grandmother in 2024                   | Semi-professional Climber                 | The youngest of 7 siblings                     | Read 106 books in 2024              | Initial college degree in Nursing                                            |
| Learned to drive manual transmission on a Combine     | Summer intern at the Pentagon when 17 y/o | Survived the blizzard of '77                   | Snorkeled abover a dozen sharks     | Tried out for X-Factor                                                       |

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                                       |                                                   |                                           |                                            |                                                |
|-------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|
| Hairdresser as her first job                          | Has a dog named Mocha                             | Summer intern at the Pentagon when 17 y/o | Ran a Marathon                             | Initial college degree in Nursing              |
| Survived the blizzard of '77                          | Read over 81 books (29 500 pages) in 2024         | Became 1st time grandmother in 2024       | On the cover of book calles Saronna's Gift | Appeared on billboards for milk advertisement  |
| Played in a Baseball Tournament                       | Worked a Suicide Prevention Hotline               | Has Dual Citizenship in another country   | Youngest of 6 siblings                     | Writes personalized poetry for gifts parties   |
| The youngest of 7 siblings                            | Semi-professional Climber                         | Knows how drive an 18-wheeler             | Worked at a Landfill in College            | Former educator at a Science & Industry museum |
| Operated equipment on the International Space Station | Learned to drive manual transmission on a Combine | Lived in Puerto Rico                      | Has cycled over 500 miles in Europe        | Wildlife Photographer                          |