

Ice Breaker BINGO

|                                  |                                  |                 |                               |                                   |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|-----------------|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| resident who's been here longest | Can play an instrument           | enjoys dancing  | met someone famous            | has a relative who's lived here   |
| community poet                   | newest resident                  | has no children | Played a sport in high school | lived in another senior community |
| never been on a plane            | sings karaoke                    | FREEBIE         | a veteran                     | grew up in Hernando               |
| has 4 or more siblings           | moved here from another state    | has a pet       | enjoys sewing or crocheting   | has green eyes                    |
| enjoys gardening                 | been on the Wesley Meadows Board | left handed     | still drives                  | does volunteer work               |

Ice Breaker BINGO

|                                   |                                        |                                           |                                           |                                            |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| singskaraoke                  | Played asport inhighschool | metsomeonefamous                  | communitypoet                         | has nochildren                         |
| enjoysdancing                 | stilldrives                        | has arelativewho'slived here  | been onthe WesleyMeadowsBoard | lived inanotherseniorcommunity |
| has 4 ormoresiblings      | aveteran                           | FREEBIE                                   | grew upinHernando                 | Can playaninstrument               |
| enjoyssewing orcrocheting | lefthanded                         | residentwho'sbeen herelongest | doesvolunteerwork                 | movedhere fromanotherstate     |
| has apet                      | hasgreeneyes                   | neverbeen ona plane               | newestresident                        | enjoysgardening                        |

Ice Breaker BINGO

|                                  |                                   |                               |                               |                                 |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| been on the Wesley Meadows Board | left handed                       | Played a sport in high school | has green eyes                | a veteran                       |
| resident who's been here longest | has 4 or more siblings            | has a pet                     | newest resident               | has a relative who's lived here |
| never been on a plane            | does volunteer work               | FREEBIE                       | moved here from another state | enjoys sewing or crocheting     |
| sings karaoke                    | lived in another senior community | met someone famous            | still drives                  | enjoys dancing                  |
| grew up in Hernando              | Can play an instrument            | has no children               | community poet                | enjoys gardening                |