

Have You Ever

Stalked a crush's social media profile	Called someone by the wrong name	Blocked and unblocked someone within the same day	Had a crush on a teacher	Saved a message just because it made you smile
Muted a group chat because it was too active	Got into a group chat fight over something silly	Smiled at your phone because of a sweet message	Rehearsed what to say before calling someone special	Created a fake excuse to leave a group chat
Rewatched a childhood cartoon/movie for nostalgia	Sent a message to the wrong group/person	Free	Thought of a perfect reply after the conversation ended	Danced alone in your room like no one was watching
Reacted with "Haha" but actually didn't find it funny	Laughed at a joke you didn't understand	Sent a voice note and then wished you hadn't	Left a group chat and then got added back	Sent a message and immediately regretted it
Listened to a love song and imagined yourself in it	Reread old messages and cringed at yourself	Hugged a pillow while sleeping	Had a dream about someone and blushed when you saw them the next day	Pretended to be busy to avoid a call/message

Have You Ever

Left a group chat and then got added back	Had a crush on someone just because of their voice	Danced alone in your room like no one was watching	Faked being sick	Reacted with "Haha" but actually didn't find it funny
Pretended not to be interested but actually liked someone a lot	Muted a group chat because it was too active	Created a fake excuse to leave a group chat	Sent a voice note and then wished you hadn't	Saved a message just because it made you smile
Kept a cute note or text for years	Laughed at a joke you didn't understand	Free	Smiled at your phone because of a sweet message	Thought of a perfect reply after the conversation ended
Called someone by the wrong name	Pretended to be busy to avoid a call/message	Got into a group chat fight over something silly	Reread old messages and cringed at yourself	Thought you could sing like the artist while showering
Sent a flirty message and immediately panicked	Rewatched a childhood cartoon/movie for nostalgia	Rehearsed what to say before calling someone special	Sent a message and immediately regretted it	Forgotten why you walked into a room
