

Have You Ever

Stalked a crush's social media profile	Blocked and unblocked someone within the same day	Laughed at a joke you didn't understand	Sent a flirty message and immediately panicked	Rehearsed what to say before calling someone special
Had a crush on someone just because of their voice	Smiled at your phone because of a sweet message	Rewatched a childhood cartoon/movie for nostalgia	Created a fake excuse to leave a group chat	Sent a voice note and then wished you hadn't
Thought of a perfect reply after the conversation ended	Danced alone in your room like no one was watching	Free	Pretended not to be interested but actually liked someone a lot	Pretended to be busy to avoid a call/message
Sent a message to the wrong group/person	Reacted with "Haha" but actually didn't find it funny	Saved a message just because it made you smile	Left a group chat and then got added back	Reread old messages and cringed at yourself
Got teary eyed while watching a movie	Sent a message and immediately regretted it	Hugged a pillow while sleeping	Typed out a long message and then deleted it instead of sending	Kept a cute note or text for years
