

|                                                   |                                                              |                                         |                                              |                                                 |
|---------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| Fill the frame with two students working together | A close-up landscape shot that shows detail (depth of field) | A picture of a music student practicing | An interesting shot that features repetition | A vertical shot that uses framing               |
| A photo with a person focused in the background.  | Fill the frame with someone laughing                         | An action shot featuring someone's face | A horizontal shot that has leading lines     | An action shot that shows emotion               |
| Bug's eye view picture                            | Fly on the wall picture                                      | FREE                             | A horizontal shot that uses framing          | A subject from an interesting angle             |
| A teacher in action in a classroom                | Bird's eye view picture                                      | A vertical shot that has leading lines  | A student with a ball in motion              | A vertical shot that uses the rule of thirds    |
| A picture that anticipates the moment             | A horizontal shot that uses the rule of thirds               | An action shot that fills the frame     | Photo of 2 students doing a chest bump       | A photo with a person focused in the foreground |

|                                         |                                              |                                                   |                                                  |                                                              |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|
| Fly on the wall picture                 | A horizontal shot that has leading lines     | An interesting shot that features repetition      | A photo with a person focused in the background. | An action shot featuring someone's face                      |
| A picture of a music student practicing | Photo of 2 students doing a chest bump       | A vertical shot that uses framing                 | A horizontal shot that uses the rule of thirds   | An action shot that shows emotion                            |
| A teacher in action in a classroom      | A horizontal shot that uses framing          | FREE                                       | A subject from an interesting angle              | A close-up landscape shot that shows detail (depth of field) |
| A student with a ball in motion         | An action shot that fills the frame          | Fill the frame with two students working together | A photo with a person focused in the foreground  | Bird's eye view picture                               |
| A vertical shot that has leading lines  | A vertical shot that uses the rule of thirds | Bug's eye view picture                     | Fill the frame with someone laughing             | A picture that anticipates the moment                        |

|                                                   |                                                              |                                              |                                                  |                                         |
|---------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| A horizontal shot that uses the rule of thirds    | An action shot that fills the frame                          | A horizontal shot that has leading lines     | A vertical shot that uses the rule of thirds     | A horizontal shot that uses framing     |
| Fill the frame with two students working together | A teacher in action in a classroom                           | A vertical shot that has leading lines       | Fill the frame with someone laughing             | A vertical shot that uses framing       |
| Bug's eye view picture                            | A photo with a person focused in the foreground              | FREE                                  | Bird's eye view picture                          | A student with a ball in motion         |
| Fly on the wall picture                           | An action shot that shows emotion                            | An interesting shot that features repetition | Photo of 2 students doing a chest bump           | A picture of a music student practicing |
| A subject from an interesting angle               | A close-up landscape shot that shows detail (depth of field) | An action shot featuring someone's face      | A photo with a person focused in the background. | A picture that anticipates the moment   |