You shouldn't speak English to him we live in Germany.	Are you STILL breastfeeding? How often?	He's exactly like Philipp	We don't like being told when and how long we are allowed to visit.	So disappointing you only have boys. Don't you want to try for a girl?
Everyone makes fun of how messy your house is // You always have stuff lying around.	You cling to him // You never share him.	Something negative about our city / the people here / the weather here	Are your sure you don't have postpartum depression? You seem like it.	The poor child is cold. He's going to catch a cold.
Why didn't you tell us that? Why don't I get more pictures? Why don't you visit more often?	You think you know everything!	FREE	Can I please sleep with him? Attempts secretly to put him down for a nap and shut the door	I raised 13 children. I am the expert!
I'm just telling the truth // just saying what everyone is thinking.	When are YOUR parents coming? How long are they allowed to stay? Some comparison comment with my parents	My children always used to... My children never did that...	I could never have left my children to daycare.	Some negative worried comment about him being in the carrier Are you sure that's safe
He's hungry / he's not getting enough to eat. He needs proper food.	Does he sleep through the night yet? Are you sure he can sleep next to you? You're not disturbing him?	Such a shame you live so far away / the visit is so short	You're so ungrateful / You never appreciate anything we do.	He doesn't know us at all. OR We barely ever see him.
