You shouldn't speak English to him we live in Germany.	Are you STILL breastfeeding? Just a little bit though right?	He's cold. He's going to catch a cold with no socks.	When are YOUR parents coming? How long are they allowed to stay? Some comparison with my parents	My children always used to... //My children never did that...
Does he sleep through the night yet? Are you sure he can sleep next to you? You're not waking him?	You live so far away!	Some negative worried comment starting with "That poor child..."	Are your sure you don't have postpartum depression? You seem like it. I'm just worried for Conrad.	We don't like being told when and how long we are allowed to visit.
You cling to him // You never share him.	You think you know everything!	FREE	Can I please sleep with him? Attempts secretly to put him down for a nap and shut the door	I could NEVER have left my children in daycare.
I raised 13 children. I am the expert!	Why didn't you tell us that? Why don't I get more pictures? Why don't you visit more often?	I'm just telling the truth // just saying what everyone is thinking.	He's hungry / he's not getting enough to eat. He needs proper food.	So disappointing you only have boys. Don't you want to try for a girl?
He's exactly like Philipp	Conrad doesn't know us at all // We barely ever see him.	Something negative about our city / the people here / the weather here	You're so ungrateful / You never appreciate anything we do.	Everyone makes fun of how messy your house is // You always have stuff lying around.
