

B	I	N	G	O
"Give me 5 minutes." (It will not be 5 minutes.)	Checks the clock more often than they'd like to admit	Has said "It's been a day..." before noon	Says "quick question" and it's never quick	Keeps the school running without recognition
Has a mysterious key that opens everything	Would likely say "That's above my pay grade."	Knows where things are before you even finish asking	Could win a dance-off at a school event	Remembers "how we used to do it"
Still has the same enthusiasm as year one	"I'm here until my legs give out" energy	FREE	Gets greeted by students everywhere they go	Has the calmest voice in stressful situations
Has worked here longer than most buildings have existed (or so it seems)	Secretly (or not secretly) competitive	Has "the look" that instantly stops behavior	Has seen everything and is no longer surprised	Knows every sibling cousin and backstory
Has saved the day more times than anyone knows	Handles chaos like it's just another Tuesday	Knows which meetings could have been an email	"We do this for the kids."	Has a playlist ready for any mood
