

B	I	N	G	O
Stares at baby wayyy too long	"Do you want to rock" when someone else is holding baby	Asks if I want her to take Raven (because she wants to hold her)	Knows better about baby than us (her parents)	Complains about not seeing Rae for a relatively short period of time
Asks about baby care (ex. Did she have a bath today?)	Only hears what she want to hear	Gives unsolicited advice on how to soothe baby	"Forgets" previously-stated boundaries or likes and dislikes	Kisses baby
Makes excuses or deflection for her behavior	States that a trait of Raven's came from her side of the family	FREE	"MY grandchild"	Asks when is Raven's next appointment
Comments on how Raven looks like her	Makes everything about her	Comments on what color Raven's eyes will be	Asks medical info or how doctor's appointments go for Rae	Displays sense of entitlement about Rae
Asks if we will have another baby	"Pumpkinpuss"	Ignores specific instructions on feeding or sleep schedules	The "hand gesture with smug face" at Raven sleeping when asked how it went while in her care	Asks how often Raven wakes up at night
