

B	I	N	G	O
You finished your whole meal	A nurse asks: "Have your bowels opened today?"	Someone brings in a packet of McVitie's biscuits	The doctor says: "We are just waiting on bloods"	Struggling to untangle the tethered call button
Offered a lukewarm builder's tea	Woken up at 06:00 AM for a blood pressure check	The Consultant arrives with an entourage of 8 doctors	A visitor arrives with a bunch of grapes	The bedside TV screen refuses to tilt the right way
Ward round whispering right outside your curtain	You get the coveted window bed position	FREE	Asked your "Name & DOB" for the tenth time today	Spotting a red tray at someone's bedside
Spotting someone wearing neon grip socks	The nurse says: "On a scale of 1 to 10..."	Squeaky shoes echoing down the corridor	Someone says: "The pharmacist just needs to sign it off"	Successfully walked all the way to the day room
Someone complains about the ward temperature	Hearing the housekeeping trolley rattling from a mile off	The IV pump starts beeping aggressively	Your dinner tray comes with a cup of lukewarm custard	Offered a tiny plastic cup of water with your pills
