

Opening Doors Event BINGO

|                |                                        |                                               |                                           |                                               |
|----------------|----------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| is resourceful | can delegate                           | is a member of the Women in Science Committee | is open to change                         | is confident                                  |
| is a PI        | is presenting a poster at the meeting  | is good at solving problems                   | has a lot of energy                       | is his/her first SFRBM Annual Meeting         |
| is organized   | is respectful                          | IS A LEADER                                   | has received a mini-fellowship from SFRBM | is a team player                              |
| is an MD       | is open-minded                         | is an undergraduate student                   | is a team leader                          | is giving an oral presentation at the meeting |
| is a post-doc  | has received a travel award from SFRBM | is his/her first Opening Doors Event          | pays attention to detail                  | is a Ph.D. student                            |

Opening Doors Event BINGO

|                                               |                                               |                   |                                        |                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------|----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| is respectful                                 | has a lot of energy                           | is open to change | is a PI                                | is good at solving problems           |
| is a member of the Women in Science Committee | pays attention to detail                      | is confident      | has received a travel award from SFRBM | is his/her first SFRBM Annual Meeting |
| is an MD                                      | has received a mini-fellowship from SFRBM     | IS A LEADER       | is a team player                       | can delegate                          |
| is a team leader                              | is his/her first Opening Doors Event          | is resourceful    | is a Ph.D. student                     | is open-minded                        |
| is an undergraduate student                   | is giving an oral presentation at the meeting | is organized      | is presenting a poster at the meeting  | is a post-doc                         |

Opening Doors Event BINGO

|                                        |                                       |                             |                                               |                                               |
|----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-----------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| has received a travel award from SFRBM | is his/her first Opening Doors Event  | has a lot of energy         | is giving an oral presentation at the meeting | has received a mini-fellowship from SFRBM     |
| is resourceful                         | is an MD                              | is an undergraduate student | is presenting a poster at the meeting         | is confident                                  |
| is organized                           | is a Ph.D. student                    | IS A LEADER                 | is open-minded                                | is a team leader                              |
| is respectful                          | is his/her first SFRBM Annual Meeting | is open to change           | pays attention to detail                      | is a member of the Women in Science Committee |
| is a team player                       | can delegate                          | is good at solving problems | is a PI                                       | is a post-doc                                 |