

|                                                                                                 |                             |                                 |                                   |                                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|
| B                                                                                        | I                    | N                        | G                          | O                                                        |
| Who was the founder and first president of PMCC                                                 | Attended NJIT               | Forestburgh Playhouse           | Taught Theatre/Drama              | Retired PA state worker                                         |
| Club has how many associate members                                                             | What does ER NCCC stand for | Son recently moved to Las Vegas | Avid Reader                       | Volunteers at the Church                                        |
| Will be married 50 years in 2013                                                                | Bicyclist                   | FREE                     | Milk Glass Collector              | Picture of vette and member was published in the Vette Magazine |
| The spouse of this member taughts her/him how to drive while the two of them were only friends. | Plays Tennis                | T'Bird Lover                    | Lived in California               | Rv'er                                                           |
| Black Powder Hunter                                                                             | Taught in Mt. Olive         | Coach T-Ball                    | Worked at a GM car assembly plant | Collects Coins                                                  |

|                                  |                                                                 |                          |                                                                                                 |                                     |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| B                         | I                                                        | N                 | G                                                                                        | O                            |
| Will be married 50 years in 2013 | Worked at a GM car assembly plant                               | Avid Reader              | Plays Tennis                                                                                    | Club has how many associate members |
| Taught Theatre/Drama             | Picture of vette and member was published in the Vette Magazine | Forestburgh Playhouse    | Rv'er                                                                                           | Bicyclist                           |
| Milk Glass Collector             | Attended NJIT                                                   | FREE              | Lived in California                                                                             | T'Bird Lover                        |
| Collects Coins                   | Who was the founder and first president of PMCC                 | Coach T-Ball             | The spouse of this member taughts her/him how to drive while the two of them were only friends. | Black Powder Hunter                 |
| Retired PA state worker          | Loves long Sunday drives                                        | Volunteers at the Church | Son recently moved to Las Vegas                                                                 | What does ER NCCC stand for         |

|                                                                                                 |                                 |                                                                 |                      |                                                 |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| B                                                                                        | I                        | N                                                        | G             | O                                        |
| The spouse of this member taughts her/him how to drive while the two of them were only friends. | Lived in California             | Will be married 50 years in 2013                                | Collects Coins       | Taught Theatre/Drama                            |
| Taught in Mt. Olive                                                                             | Volunteers at the Church        | Worked at a GM car assembly plant                               | Plays Tennis         | Bicyclist                                       |
| T'Bird Lover                                                                                    | Avid Reader                     | FREE                                                     | Milk Glass Collector | Forestburgh Playhouse                           |
| Loves long Sunday drives                                                                        | Retired PA state worker         | Black Powder Hunter                                             | Attended NJIT        | Who was the founder and first president of PMCC |
| What does ER NCCC stand for                                                                     | Son recently moved to Las Vegas | Picture of vette and member was published in the Vette Magazine | Rv'er                | Coach T-Ball                                    |