

B	I	N	G	O
In 2014 I traveled around the world in 69 days.	For our honeymoon my wife and I bought an around-the-world ticket and traveled for 5 months.	As a high school freshman I won a gold medal in the 100 yard relay at the Penn Relays.	I have a twin sister named Kristen.	I was born in Massachusetts.
I played on a national championship field hockey team in college.	I currently live in Cambridge.	I've been sandboarding in Florianopolis Brazil.	I taught children how to juggle flaming torches at a circus summer camp.	I accidentally drove onto an F1 race track in Montreal.
I was a professionally ranked Wiffleball player for 6 years.	I'm the oldest of four sisters.	My aunt created Barney the Dinosaur.	I appear numerous times on the 1999 DVD of Eric Clapton's Crossroads Benefit at Madison Square Garden.	I skipped the 5th grade.
I moved to Lubbock TX from Boston a week after my college graduation.	I once narrated the Jungle Book for a ballet.	I was in the movie "Shall We Dance?" with Jennifer Lopez Richard Gere and Susan Sarandon.	I partied on on the tour bus with the band Disturbed along with their wives & dogs.	I used to live in a rave warehouse on Congress Street.
I'm a black belt in Tae Kwon Do.	I have gone deep water soloing in Ha Long Bay Vietnam.	I have been to over seven Boyz II Men concerts.	I played ultimate frisbee in college and helped make it an official sport in Maine high schools.	I have been playing hockey since I was 3 years old.

B	I	N	G	O
I appear numerous times on the 1999 DVD of Eric Clapton's Crossroads Benefit at Madison Square Garden.	I commute into work every day on the Green line.	I shot billiards with Bob Marley's band The Wailers.	I played on a national championship field hockey team in college.	I played clarinet in a college marching band and once hi-fived Aaron Rogers on the field.
I am wearing a blue shirt today.	I'm the oldest of four sisters.	I can say the alphabet backwards.	I was born on a marine corps air base in Cherry Point NC.	I moved to Lubbock TX from Boston a week after my college graduation.
I once narrated the Jungle Book for a ballet.	I've competed in multiple Luberjack Competitions.	I accidentally drove onto an F1 race track in Montreal.	My aunt created Barney the Dinosaur.	I've been sandboarding in Florianopolis Brazil.
I skipped the 5th grade.	I was born in Massachusetts.	I played ultimate frisbee in college and helped make it an official sport in Maine high schools.	I once spiked a volleyball in David Ortiz's face during an intense game of pool volleyball.	I currently live in Cambridge.
I have a twin sister named Kristen.	I trained in Kendo in college and represented the school team.	My dance company performed a show on one of Magic Kingdom stage's when I was 11.	I was a professionally ranked Wiffleball player for 6 years.	I taught children how to juggle flaming torches at a circus summer camp.

B	I	N	G	O
I went to the same high school as Adam Sandler and had some of the same teachers.	I appear numerous times on the 1999 DVD of Eric Clapton's Crossroads Benefit at Madison Square Garden.	I created the Rough Cut Show with Tommy McDonald on WGBH.	I trained in Kendo in college and represented the school team.	I played on a national championship field hockey team in college.
I currently live in Cambridge.	I used to live in a rave warehouse on Congress Street.	I shot billiards with Bob Marley's band The Wailers.	For our honeymoon my wife and I bought an around-the-world ticket and traveled for 5 months.	I made the cut in an amateur golf tournament when I was 23 years old.
As a high school freshman I won a gold medal in the 100 yard relay at the Penn Relays.	I played clarinet in a college marching band and once hi-fived Aaron Rogers on the field.	In 2014 I traveled around the world in 69 days.	I can say the alphabet backwards.	While in college I studied abroad in Luxembourg.
My father is a rabbi and I used to be reasonably fluent in Aramaic.	I did improv theatre for fun when I lived in Chicago.	My dance company performed a show on one of Magic Kingdom stage's when I was 11.	I am wearing a blue shirt today.	I was born in Massachusetts.
I taught children how to juggle flaming torches at a circus summer camp.	I have a dog.	I accidentally drove onto an F1 race track in Montreal.	My aunt created Barney the Dinosaur.	I once narrated the Jungle Book for a ballet.