The mountains made the sun climb a long way to show itself	Arnold lay still as a fugitive	His head is in the clouds	Sounds sharp as knives	Personification
Her tears fell like raindrops	The moon beams dance in the night	Shrill	Babbling brook	Snorting noises
The coat felt soft	The sun climbed the night sky	FREE	Clomping	Metaphor
My blanket is a warm cocoon	The clock with its clucking pendulum	Onomatopoeia	His sister was as sweet as candy	Pit was a sizzling hot day
His heart is stone	He was cozy as a teddy bear	Simile	the cow sang a song	His Laughter continued like hiccups
