

B	I	N	G	O
Parents were wealthy	As a young girl bought home stray animals	First Girl Scout handbook written in 1913	Loved to draw and paint	Grandmother captured by the Indians and lived with them
Designed her own clothes	Nickname was Daisy	Liked to put on plays and skits	Born October 31 1860	Loved animals especially horses
Met Lord and Lady Baden Powell in England	She had a school and a ship named after her	FREE	Born in Savannah Georgia	First troop was in Scotland
Founded Girl Scouts of the USA	Married William Low	Girls in first troop played basketball and went camping	First troop had 18 girls	Had 3 sisters and 2 brothers
First meeting in the United States was on March 12 1912	Deaf most of her adult life	Lived in England and Scotland	Sold her pearls to help the Girl Scouts	Earned good grades in school

B	I	N	G	O
She had a school and a ship named after her	Born October 31 1860	Loved to draw and paint	Designed her own clothes	Liked to put on plays and skits
First Girl Scout handbook written in 1913	Sold her pearls to help the Girl Scouts	Grandmother captured by the Indians and lived with them	Deaf most of her adult life	Loved animals especially horses
Founded Girl Scouts of the USA	Born in Savannah Georgia	FREE	First troop was in Scotland	As a young girl bought home stray animals
First troop had 18 girls	Lived in England and Scotland	Parents were wealthy	Earned good grades in school	Married William Low
Girls in first troop played basketball and went camping	Had 3 sisters and 2 brothers	Met Lord and Lady Baden Powell in England	Nickname was Daisy	First meeting in the United States was on March 12 1912

B	I	N	G	O
Deaf most of her adult life	Lived in England and Scotland	Born October 31 1860	Had 3 sisters and 2 brothers	Born in Savannah Georgia
Parents were wealthy	Founded Girl Scouts of the USA	Girls in first troop played basketball and went camping	Nickname was Daisy	Grandmother captured by the Indians and lived with them
Met Lord and Lady Baden Powell in England	Earned good grades in school	FREE	Married William Low	First troop had 18 girls
She had a school and a ship named after her	Loved animals especially horses	Loved to draw and paint	Sold her pearls to help the Girl Scouts	First Girl Scout handbook written in 1913
First troop was in Scotland	As a young girl bought home stray animals	Liked to put on plays and skits	Designed her own clothes	First meeting in the United States was on March 12 1912