

I'd like to have a job that allows me to travel	I think $$ and job happiness should be equal	I want a job that helps make the world a better place	I want to live and work far away from my home town	I want to get a doctorate degree
I want a career in the social sciences	I want to work in another country	I want to have a career in the education field	I want a career an English writing or journalism field	I want to have a career in the science field
I want to stay in the same career my whole working life	I'd rather love to go to work each day than make a lot of $$	FREE	I want a career in a math field	I want to get a 4 year degree (Bachelors)
I want to get a Master's Degree	I want to live and work in my home town	I want to get a a 2 year degree (Associates)	I want to be able to change careers often as an adult	I want to have a career in business or law
I want a job that lets me boss other people around	I want a career in foreign language	I want to have a career in the medical field	I'd rather make a lot of $$ than like my job	I want a job that allows me to spend time with my family
