

|                                       |                                |                                                 |                                 |                                      |
|---------------------------------------|--------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| B                              | I                       | N                                        | G                        | O                             |
| social construction theory (of aging) | Alzheimer's disease            | dependency ratio                                | morbidity                       | international memory                 |
| crystallized intelligence             | reminiscence                   | life review                                     | activity theory (of aging)      | programmed aging theories            |
| social exchange theory (of aging)     | age stratification perspective | FREE                                     | fluid intelligence              | genetic theories of biological aging |
| power of attorney (POA)               | incidental memory              | molecular/cellular theories of biological aging | disengagement theory (of aging) | keeper of meaning                    |
| continuity theory (of aging)          | mortality rate                 | delirium                                        | social gerontology              | dementia                             |

|                                            |                                                |                                  |                                       |                                                       |
|--------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| B                                   | I                                       | N                         | G                              | O                                              |
| socialexchangetheory (ofaging) | socialgerontology                          | activitytheory(of aging) | incidentalmemory                  | crystallizedintelligence                          |
| morbidity                                  | genetictheories ofbiologicalaging  | dependencyratio              | keeperofmeaning               | agestratificationperspective                  |
| fluidintelligence                      | Alzheimer'sdisease                         | FREE                      | disengagementtheory (ofaging) | molecular/cellulartheories ofbiological aging |
| dementia                                   | socialconstructiontheory (ofaging) | delirium                         | power ofattorney(POA)         | continuitytheory (ofaging)                    |
| internationalmemory                    | feministtheory(of aging)               | programmedagingtheories  | lifereview                        | reminiscence                                          |

|                                                 |                                 |                                      |                     |                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------|---------------------|---------------------------------------|
| B                                        | I                        | N                             | G            | O                              |
| power of attorney (POA)                         | disengagement theory (of aging) | social exchange theory (of aging)    | dementia            | morbidity                             |
| mortality rate                                  | programmed aging theories       | social gerontology                   | incidental memory   | age stratification perspective        |
| molecular/cellular theories of biological aging | activity theory (of aging)      | FREE                          | fluid intelligence  | dependency ratio                      |
| feminist theory (of aging)                      | international memory            | continuity theory (of aging)         | Alzheimer's disease | social construction theory (of aging) |
| reminiscence                                    | life review                     | genetic theories of biological aging | keeper of meaning   | delirium                              |