The sun smiled down on us as we walked to school	A deer ran into the road and my mother slammed on her brakes	He drowned in a sea of grief	She was as slow as in January	It's hot enough outside to fry an egg on the pavement
Dianalys does diabolical deeds	The phone awakened me with a mighty ring	Metaphor	Baby you're a firework	Personification
The large pizza vanilla ice cream begged to be eaten	The trees nodded at John as he passed by	FREE	Boom boom pow	I came in like a wrecking ball
I'll be your mirror	Simile	I'm so hungry I could eat a horse!	Hyperbole	Jamia loves Jamaican jams
Her eyes were sparkling jewels	Brandon bragged about buying bunches of brownies	Onomatopoeia	This homework is going to take a million years!	Happiness hit her like a train on a track
