

B	I	N	G	O
Wear purple	Attend a domestic violence support group	Have a moment of silence in honor of victims/survivors	Take a group or individual photo and post it to social media using the hashtag #TakeAStand	Reach out to local media outlets about domestic violence awareness in your community
Find a new fact about domestic violence	Talk about healthy vs unhealthy relationships at meals	Research state legislature regarding domestic violence	Attend the DV awareness Carnival on October 22	Share your gratitude for those working in the domestic violence movement
Talk about healthy vs unhealthy communication during a meal	Write a letter of encouragement to a survivor showing your support	FREE	Educate your favorite teenager on dating violence	Memorize the National Domestic Violence Hotline number
Memorize your local DV hotline phone number	Talk about healthy vs unhealthy boundaries during a meal	Put a purple ribbon on your bag or car	Make a definition of what a survivor means to you	Research domestic violence facts
Identify ways that you can be an advocate for victims/survivors of domestic violence	Encourage people not to make jokes about domestic violence	Share facts about domestic violence with others	Write a poem about healing from domestic violence	Hand out educational brochures

B	I	N	G	O
Write a letter of encouragement to a survivor showing your support	Attend the DV awareness Carnival on October 22	Take a group or individual photo and post it to social media using the hashtag #TakeAStand	Find a new fact about domestic violence	Research state legislature regarding domestic violence
Have a moment of silence in honor of victims/survivors	Write a poem about healing from domestic violence	Reach out to local media outlets about domestic violence awareness in your community	Encourage people not to make jokes about domestic violence	Share your gratitude for those working in the domestic violence movement
Memorize your local DV hotline phone number	Educate your favorite teenager on dating violence	FREE	Memorize the National Domestic Violence Hotline number	Attend a domestic violence support group
Make a definition of what a survivor means to you	Share facts about domestic violence with others	Wear purple	Hand out educational brochures	Talk about healthy vs unhealthy boundaries during a meal
Put a purple ribbon on your bag or car	Research domestic violence facts	Talk about healthy vs unhealthy communication during a meal	Talk about healthy vs unhealthy relationships at meals	Identify ways that you can be an advocate for victims/survivors of domestic violence

B	I	N	G	O
Encourage people not to make jokes about domestic violence	Share facts about domestic violence with others	Attend the DV awareness Carnival on October 22	Research domestic violence facts	Educate your favorite teenager on dating violence
Wear purple	Memorize your local DV hotline phone number	Put a purple ribbon on your bag or car	Talk about healthy vs unhealthy relationships at meals	Reach out to local media outlets about domestic violence awareness in your community
Talk about healthy vs unhealthy communication during a meal	Hand out educational brochures	FREE	Talk about healthy vs unhealthy boundaries during a meal	Make a definition of what a survivor means to you
Write a letter of encouragement to a survivor showing your support	Share your gratitude for those working in the domestic violence movement	Take a group or individual photo and post it to social media using the hashtag #TakeAStand	Write a poem about healing from domestic violence	Have a moment of silence in honor of victims/survivors
Memorize the National Domestic Violence Hotline number	Attend a domestic violence support group	Research state legislature regarding domestic violence	Find a new fact about domestic violence	Identify ways that you can be an advocate for victims/survivors of domestic violence