

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                         |                                                   |                                              |                                                |                                                          |
|-----------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|
| who has a sibling in the room           | Bought a house before the age of 20               | has been in a professional dance competition | owns a dog named Oliver                        | has run a marathon                                       |
| danced the "Chicken Dance" at a wedding | was born in Cleveland Ohio (the grey gritty city) | is originally from South Africa              | Bought or sold more than 11(!)units with Blair | teaches Economics                                        |
| who is in pharmacy school               | Was recently accepted to UVM's MBA program        | has gone barefoot in the Dominican Republic  | has had more than 24 stitches                  | started a charity for cancer patients in Franklin County |
| has never gotten a speeding ticket      | owns a car garage/mechanic shop                   | has been to a Hawaiian Island                | is a career mom (Has a career and is a mom)    | Works on a Farm                                          |
| runs a nanny agency                     | flips dirt bikes and mopeds                       | works for the Howard Center                  | flips houses around Burlington                 | has fainted or thrown up in public                       |

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                         |                                                          |                                                   |                                                |                                 |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| who is in pharmacy school               | Was recently accepted to UVM's MBA program               | teaches Economics                                 | Bought or sold more than 11(!)units with Blair | Works on a Farm                 |
| flips houses around Burlington          | started a charity for cancer patients in Franklin County | has gone barefoot in the Dominican Republic       | has run a marathon                             | owns a car garage/mechanic shop |
| danced the "Chicken Dance" at a wedding | has been in a professional dance competition             | is originally from South Africa                   | is a career mom (Has a career and is a mom)    | who has a sibling in the room   |
| has never gotten a speeding ticket      | flips dirt bikes and mopeds                              | was born in Cleveland Ohio (the grey gritty city) | has been to a Hawaiian Island                  | owns a dog named Oliver         |
| runs a nanny agency                     | works for the Howard Center                              | has fainted or thrown up in public                | Bought a house before the age of 20            | has had more than 24 stitches   |

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                                          |                                             |                                         |                                                 |                                                   |
|----------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|
| started a charity for cancer patients in Franklin County | is a career mom (Has a career and is a mom) | flips dirt bikes and mopeds             | flips houses around Burlington                  | has been to a Hawaiian Island                     |
| Works on a Farm                                          | has fainted or thrown up in public          | danced the "Chicken Dance" at a wedding | has gone barefoot in the Dominican Republic     | who has a sibling in the room                     |
| has never gotten a speeding ticket                       | runs a nanny agency                         | is originally from South Africa         | Was recently accepted to UVM's MBA program      | was born in Cleveland Ohio (the grey gritty city) |
| who is in pharmacy school                                | owns a car garage/mechanic shop             | works for the Howard Center             | Bought or sold more than 11(!) units with Blair | Bought a house before the age of 20               |
| has had more than 24 stitches                            | teaches Economics                           | owns a dog named Oliver                 | has been in a professional dance competition    | has run a marathon                                |