

Betty's Bathhouse Bingo

This is my 17th new towel in an hour-No I'm still not leaving a tip	Better grab some gloves if you're gonna touch that	I'm just here to "use the gym"	She's angrily waiting for him in the parking lot	No Sir we can't promise you'll "get some action"- That's all up to you
I think that was my priest I saw in the sling	They check in "in a relationship" but when they check out "it's complicated"	No we can't turn up the lights-It's called a darkroom for a reason	He's married but his wife doesn't know	OMG! I think that's a cucumber!
The new guy just ran out screaming but he's only been here 10 minutes!	We just wanted to check on you-You've been in the sling for 12 hours	FREE	I can't talk to the staff in public or people will know I go to the tubs	No I don't need a lockbox- Can you put this in my lockbox?
No Ma'am we can't let you in-No not even just to watch	Thank you for your support for World Aids Day!	No Sir we don't issue refunds just because you still have blueballs	My boyfriend put a tracker on my phone so now I have to park next door	No Sir we will not bar him just because he's not into you
I'm sorry Sir but we absolutely will not add Mexican food to the Sunday menu	I have no idea what that is but I'm not cleaning it up	No we will not save all the used condoms for you- Please stop calling	We know it's election year Senator but you still cannot enter through the back door	I'm getting his number because I think he's 'The One'
