

Betty's Bathhouse Bingo

We just wanted to check on you-You've been in the sling for 12 hours	Better grab gloves if you're gonna touch that	It's called a darkroom for a reason Sir-will not turn on the lights	That was my priest is just saw in the sling	No we won't fire him if he's not into you.
I don't know what that is but I'm not cleaning it up	This is my 17th towel in an hour but no I'm not tipping you	She's in the parking lot and she looks angry!	Give me your number - I think you're "the One"	Thank you for your World AIDS Day support!!
They were in a relationship when they checked in but now 'it's complicated'	We know it's election year Senator but you still cannot enter through the back door	FREE	He's "straight" and his wife doesn't know	No Ma'am we won't let you in even to just watch
No Sir there's no promise you'll 'get some action'. That's your job.	The new guy just ran out screaming but he's only been here 10 minutes	No Sir we won't issue refunds even if you still have blueballs	No I don't need a lockbox - can you put this in my lockbox?	OMG I think that's a cucumber!
My boyfriend has a tracker on my phone so I have to park nextdoor	I can't talk to the staff or people will know I go to the tubs	Sorry Sir but we will NOT add Mexican food to the Sunday menu	We will NOT save used condoms for you. Please stop calling!	I'm just here to "use the gym"
