Yelling to get your way.	Being yourself!	How could you think that was a good idea.	Sticking up for what you believe in.	Letting others know when something is bothering you.
Giving up when you run into a problem.	What do you think of this idea?	Sharing your interests and ideas with others.	Bossing others around.	Speaking quietly.
We can do whatever you want.	You go ahead you're better at it.	FREE	Disagreeing in a respectful way.	I felt frustrated when you took over the project. Can we do it together?
I need some help with this part of the problem.	Um yeah.. I guess you can borrow my pencil.	Just let me do it!	I feel worried about letting you borrow my pencil because we aren't supposed to share supplies.	Not stating how you feel.
I disagree with what you are saying. Can we try this instead?	Give me that!	Someone who always lets others choose.	You're so dumb!	Go play with somebody else!
