

| B                   | I                         | N                       | G                          | O                    |
|----------------------------|----------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| works with 4-Hers          | belongs to a fire/ems department | is a grades 3-6 teacher        | lives on a farm                   | knows an Eagle Scout        |
| grows their own grapes     | works for forestry               | likes beets                    | campes outdoors each year         | likes to fish               |
| recycles in their home     | works with natural resources     | FREE                    | can identify at least 5 trees     | knows 3 songs about nature  |
| knows 4 books about nature | prefers to grill outdoors        | knows a local invasive species | is a teacher of the arts          | knows how to measure a tree |
| is a grades 7-9 teacher    | enjoys hiking                    | likes gardening                | works with special groups of kids | is a PK-2 teacher           |

|                                |                                   |                        |                            |                                  |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|------------------------|----------------------------|----------------------------------|
| B                       | I                          | N               | G                   | O                         |
| works with natural resources   | camps outdoors each year          | lives on a farm        | grows their own grapes     | likes beets                      |
| is a grades 3-6 teacher        | works with special groups of kids | knows an Eagle Scout   | enjoys hiking              | likes to fish                    |
| knows 4 books about nature     | can identify at least 5 trees     | FREE            | knows 3 songs about nature | belongs to a fire/ems department |
| is a teacher of the arts       | likes gardening                   | works with 4-Hers      | is a PK-2 teacher          | prefers to grill outdoors        |
| knows a local invasive species | knows how to measure a tree       | recycles in their home | works for forestry         | is a grades 7-9 teacher          |

|                              |                                  |                                |                                   |                               |
|------------------------------|----------------------------------|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| B                     | I                         | N                       | G                          | O                      |
| enjoys hiking                | likes gardening                  | camps outdoors each year       | knows how to measure a tree       | can identify at least 5 trees |
| works with 4-Hers            | knows 4 books about nature       | knows a local invasive species | works for forestry                | knows an Eagle Scout          |
| recycles in their home       | is a PK-2 teacher                | FREE                    | prefers to grill outdoors         | is a teacher of the arts      |
| works with natural resources | likes to fish                    | lives on a farm                | works with special groups of kids | is a grades 3-6 teacher       |
| knows 3 songs about nature   | belongs to a fire/ems department | likes beets                    | grows their own grapes            | is a grades 7-9 teacher       |