Repetition	"CRACK! POP-POP-CRACK!"	"The mariposas swirled and twisted around us like dark snowflakes in the surreal light of dusk..."	Irony	Hi head is in the clouds
"Overhead a jet plane veered away like a sleek evil bird."	Personification	Hyperbole	"He's flour from a different sack."	Pam purchased paper plates
Simile	"Men and women boys and girls old and young walking walking...Walking to nowhere."	"There was only heat-the sun already baking the air..."	Foreshadowing	Onomatopoeia
Grover was looking at me like I was a dead man	Idiom	"The moon played hide in seek with the clouds."	Hold your horses	"Not a scratch on this car brain boy."
Metaphor	"Pale faces wrinkled like fruit leather."	The cows sang a song	"She usually wails louder than a smoke alarm."	"The waters here were dark and angry almost violent."
