

|                                                                |                                              |                                           |                                                |                                                 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| B                                                       | I                                     | N                                  | G                                       | O                                        |
| traveled out of the country                                    | ate breakfast before they came to in-service | has ever been a school age teacher        | loves working with infants                     | is interested in working with another age group |
| has a bachelors degree in education/ early childhood education | owns multiple animals                        | loves to read                             | can play a musical instrument                  | new here this year                              |
| who has a birthday this month                                  | can sing                                     | has worked at EEC for over 1 year         | has younger siblings                           | made their bed up this morning                  |
| is a great artist                                              | loves working preschool age group            | has more than seven letters in their name | is left handed                                 | can speak a foreign language                    |
| loves working with toddlers                                    | has adult children                           | works more than one job                   | has done the "cha cha" slide at a family event | has taught for over 20 years                    |

|                                                               |                                    |                                   |                                                 |                                   |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| B                                                      | I                           | N                          | G                                        | O                          |
| who has a birthday this month                                 | can sing                           | new here this year                | can play a musical instrument                   | can speak a foreign language      |
| has done the "cha cha" slide at a family event                | made their bed up this morning     | has worked at EEC for over 1 year | is interested in working with another age group | loves working preschool age group |
| has a bachelors degree in education/early childhood education | has ever been a school age teacher | loves to read                     | is left handed                                  | traveled out of the country       |
| is a great artist                                             | has adult children                 | owns multiple animals             | has more than seven letters in their name       | loves working with infants        |
| loves working with toddlers                                   | works more than one job            | has taught for over 20 years      | ate breakfast before they came to in-service    | has younger siblings              |

|                                |                                   |                                                               |                                                |                                                 |
|--------------------------------|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------|
| B                       | I                          | N                                                      | G                                       | O                                        |
| made their bed up this morning | is left handed                    | has adult children                                            | has done the "cha cha" slide at a family event | has more than seven letters in their name       |
| can speak a foreign language   | has taught for over 20 years      | has a bachelors degree in education/early childhood education | has worked at EEC for over 1 year              | traveled out of the country                     |
| is a great artist              | loves working with toddlers       | loves to read                                                 | can sing                                       | owns multiple animals                           |
| who has a birthday this month  | loves working preschool age group | works more than one job                                       | can play a musical instrument                  | ate breakfast before they came to in-service    |
| has younger siblings           | new here this year                | loves working with infants                                    | has ever been a school age teacher             | is interested in working with another age group |