

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                                     |                                     |                                                  |                                                                                 |                                                      |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Saw David Bowie or Prince live in concert           | Born in Skwxwú7mesh territory       | Has been on vacation somewhere you have been too | Lives with a teenager                                                           | Has worked at Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw for over 10 years |
| Favourite season is summer                          | Loves gardening                     | Is the oldest child                              | Can correctly pronounce Úxwumixw (and can teach you if you can't)               | Knows how to surf                                    |
| Loves cooking                                       | Someone you have never met before   | FREE                                      | Doesn't like Kombucha or green juice                                            | Has gone to a Canucks game                           |
| Has hunted or fished on the traditional territories | Loves Star Trek more than Star Wars | Has visited New Zealand                          | Has changed a tire                                                              | Is left-handed                                       |
| Has broken more than 3 bones                        | Doesn't drink coffee                | Is wearing something yellow                      | Works at Nch'kay Development Corporation Hiyám Housing or Squamish Nation Trust | Has a dog or cat as a pet                            |

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                                     |                                                                                 |                                                      |                            |                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Someone you have never met before                   | Can correctly pronounce Úxwumixw (and can teach you if you can't)               | Lives with a teenager                                | Favourite season is summer | Is the oldest child                 |
| Has been on vacation somewhere you have been too    | Works at Nch'kay Development Corporation Hiyám Housing or Squamish Nation Trust | Has worked at Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw for over 10 years | Doesn't drink coffee       | Knows how to surf                   |
| Has hunted or fished on the traditional territories | Doesn't like Kombucha or green juice                                            | FREE                                          | Has gone to a Canucks game | Born in Skwxwú7mesh territory       |
| Has changed a tire                                  | Is wearing something yellow                                                     | Saw David Bowie or Prince live in concert            | Has a dog or cat as a pet  | Loves Star Trek more than Star Wars |
| Has visited New Zealand                             | Is left-handed                                                                  | Loves cooking                                        | Loves gardening            | Has broken more than 3 bones        |

FIND SOMEONE WHO...

|                                           |                                                     |                                                                   |                                                                                    |                                                      |
|-------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Doesn't drink coffee                      | Is wearing something yellow                         | Can correctly pronounce Úxwumixw (and can teach you if you can't) | Is left-handed                                                                     | Doesn't like Kombucha or green juice                 |
| Saw David Bowie or Prince live in concert | Has hunted or fished on the traditional territories | Has visited New Zealand                                           | Loves gardening                                                                    | Has worked at Skwxwú7mesh Úxwumixw for over 10 years |
| Loves cooking                             | Has a dog or cat as a pet                           | FREE                                                       | Loves Star Trek more than Star Wars                                                | Has changed a tire                                   |
| Someone you have never met before         | Knows how to surf                                   | Lives with a teenager                                             | Works at Nch'kay Development CorporationHiyám Housing or Squamish Nation Trust | Has been on vacation somewhere you have been too     |
| Has gone to a Canucks game                | Born in Skwxwú7mesh territory                       | Is the oldest child                                               | Favourite season is summer                                                         | Has broken more than 3 bones                         |