

|                                                      |                                  |                                                             |                                    |                                               |
|------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|
| My child's school makes family engagement a priority | I am a Special Education Teacher | I follow PEATC on Facebook.                                 | I live out of state                | I have traveled overseas                      |
| I can sing                                           | My child has fish as a pet       | I like going to the beach                                   | I am a middle child                | I've jumped from a parachute                  |
| This is my first time attending a PEATC event.       | I am a new teacher               | I have attended a virtual PEATC workshop in the past month. | I have been to Paris               | I will leave this event with one new contact. |
| I have one child                                     | I like to bowl                   | I get PEATC's newsletters.                                  | I know someone name Ann            | I am new to the field of Family Engagement    |
| I practice self-care                                 | I can swim                       | What do you hope to learn from this event?                  | I drove over 100 miles to get here | I have 3 children                             |

|                                                |                                               |                                                             |                                  |                                                      |
|------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| This is my first time attending a PEATC event. | I am a new teacher                            | I've jumped from a parachute                                | I am a middle child              | I am new to the field of Family Engagement           |
| I drove over 100 miles to get here             | I will leave this event with one new contact. | I have attended a virtual PEATC workshop in the past month. | I have traveled overseas         | I like to bowl                                       |
| I can sing                                     | I follow PEATC on Facebook.                   | I like going to the beach                                   | I know someone name Ann          | My child's school makes family engagement a priority |
| I have one child                               | I can swim                                    | My child has fish as a pet                                  | I get PEATC's newsletters.       | I live out of state                                  |
| I practice self-care                           | What do you hope to learn from this event?    | I have 3 children                                           | I am a Special Education Teacher | I have been to Paris                                 |

|                                                |                              |                                            |                                                             |                                                      |
|------------------------------------------------|------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| I will leave this event with one new contact.  | I know someone name Ann      | I can swim                                 | I drove over 100 miles to get here                          | I get PEATC's newsletters.                           |
| I am new to the field of Family Engagement     | I have 3 children            | I can sing                                 | I have attended a virtual PEATC workshop in the past month. | My child's school makes family engagement a priority |
| I have one child                               | I practice self-care         | I like going to the beach                  | I am a new teacher                                          | My child has fish as a pet                           |
| This is my first time attending a PEATC event. | I like to bowl               | What do you hope to learn from this event? | I am a middle child                                         | I am a Special Education Teacher                     |
| I have been to Paris                           | I've jumped from a parachute | I live out of state                        | I follow PEATC on Facebook.                                 | I have traveled overseas                             |