I commute into work every day on the Green line.	I created the Rough Cut Show with Tommy McDonald on WGBH.	I once spiked a volleyball in David Ortiz's face during an intense game of pool volleyball.	I have been to over seven Boyz II Men concerts.	I accidently drove onto an F1 race track in Montreal.
While in college I studied abroad in Luxembourg.	I'm the oldest of four sisters.	As a high school freshman I won a gold medal in the 100 yard relay at the Penn Relays.	I was a professionally ranked Wiffleball player for 6 years.	I have been playing hockey since I was 3 years old.
I went to the same high school as Adam Sandler and had some of the same teachers.	I had scarlet fever when I was an infant and almost died.	I skipped the 5th grade.	I'm a black belt in Tae Kwon Do.	I have gone deep water soloing in Ha Long Bay Vietnam.
I am wearing a blue shirt today.	In 2014 I traveled around the world in 69 days.	My father is a rabbi and I used to be reasonably fluent in Aramaic.	I partied on on the tour bus with the band Disturbed along with their wives & dogs.	I currently live in Cambridge.
I did improv theatre for fun when I lived in Chicago.	I was in the movie "Shall We Dance?" with Jennifer Lopez Richard Gere and Susan Sarandon.	For our honeymoon my wife and I bought an around-the-world ticket and traveled for 5 months.	I have three siblings adopted from three different countries.	My dance company performed a show on one of Magic Kingdom stage's when I was 11.
